| Introduction To Report and Updates Since Last Council SHAG week was a hugely successful week. Well maybe not but I'm bias so there's that. Thanks to all who took part! We raised €550 for the charity week fund on Tuesday night at our sex quiz in the Scholars on Tuesday. 350 students took part in a survey on consent and domestic violence on Wednesday. We also handed out 150 P.O.R.N. (Protect Ourselves Right Now) Packets at our P.O.R.N Party in the stables. These packets included information on STIs, contraception, consent, a free sex booklet, a condom and lube. On Thursday I supported Out In UL to provide Rapid HIV testing in the Student Union from 10am – 6PM. The entire day was a massive success and was hugely encouraging to see some many students openly wishing to be informed. Myself, Ciara Kelleher and a member of Out in UL will be visiting NUIG in Week 8 where we will be meeting with NUIG president Jimmy McGovern to discuss their implementation of gender neutral bathrooms across campus and issues that have arisen. Consent workshops are currently being organised with Mid-West Rape Crisis Centre. Wheelchair sports event being organised with Spina Bifida Ireland | |
