Introduction To Report and Updates Since Last Council Hi everyone! My name is Conor Hussey and I am your academic officer for the coming year. I look forward to getting to know you all and working with you. During the summer I attended a lot of introduction meetings with various stakeholders across the campus. From this I have developed relationships with different people who I now feel comfortable to work with for the coming year. I want to thank last year's student council for all their hard work and hopefully this year will prove to be as enjoyable, exciting and fruitful. Finally I'd like to thank Sarah, Donal and Caolan for their work last year and I wish them the best in the future.
