INTRODUCTION TO MY ROLE

In my role as clubs officer I act in the best interests of all the clubs in ULSU. I liaise with other club officers at C&S exec to bring make sure a two-way communication pattern is utilised.

UPDATES SINCE LAST COUNCIL

- The vision of ULSU C&S Hub has been created. This Drop-In will give the 66 Clubs and Societies an informal opportunity to interact with their respective representatives on the ULSU Executive.
- The 'ULSU C&S Wolf Pack Drop-In', is named to be in keeping with the branding in the SU. The Drop-In will provide an informal opportunity to committee member to present any questions to the C&S Exec. The Exec will strive to provide an answer within 24 hours.
- Questions regarding any C&S related query can be asked: Budget/ Further Funding Opportunities, General Recommendations, C&S Awards, and of course how the upcoming referendum will affect their club or society.
- Working on the proposal to get a recreation of the photo from 2008 presented at the last council. Backing from a number of Clubs thus far. Aiming for publication in An Focal -/+ 2 weeks before referendum.
- A new policy was passed on Non-Members of a club or society taking place in club or society activity. Clubs or Societies found to have said non-member taking part will be fined 10% of their annual budget. If no annual budget exists, it will be dealt with the C&S Exec on a case-by-case basis.
